Upcoming Administrative Sessions to Determine AGL, Georgia Power Rate Cases

December 3, 2019 – (ATLANTA) This year, both Atlanta Gas Light and Georgia Power asked the Georgia Public Service Commission to increase rates on natural gas and electricity respectively.

After several hearings that included testimony from PSC advocacy staff, the two companies and dozens of intervenors, the elected PSC Commissioners are expected to make final decisions on the utilities' requests this month. On Dec. 17, the Commissioners will vote on Georgia Power's rate case. On Dec. 19, the commissioners will vote on Atlanta Gas Light's rate case.

The Georgia Public Service Commission is a five-member constitutional agency that exercises its authority and influence to ensure that consumers receive safe, reliable, and reasonably-priced telecommunications, electric and natural gas service from financially viable and technically competent companies.
