COMMISSION FACES BUSY AND CHALLENGING YEAR

The Georgia Public Service Commission will face an unprecedented number of major proceedings and rate cases in 2019, beginning with the filing of Georgia Power Company's Integrated Resource Plan on January 31, 2019. Both investor owned utilities, the Georgia Power Company and the Atlanta Gas Light Company, are expected to ask for increases in their base rates. The Commission will also continue to hold hearings on the Plant Vogtle Construction Monitoring Report and conduct hearings on the Atlanta Gas Light Company Capacity Supply Plan and Liberty Utilities' Gas Supply Plan. Liberty Utilities, which serves customers in Columbus and Gainesville, is expected to file a base rate in early 2020 but the preliminary work will begin in 2019.

"Our staff will be pushed and our staff will be challenged," said Commission Chairman Lauren "Bubba" McDonald. "Our staff will be occupied with analyzing and reviewing these rate cases, supervising our outside consultants and preparing testimony for

COMMISSIONER SHAW SWORN IN

Governor Nathan Deal administers the Oath of Office to Commissioner Shaw as his wife, Katy ,and children Anne Harvey and Shelton look on.

Jason Shaw took part in his first Commission meeting on January 3, 2019 after his swearing in by Governor Nathan Deal. Deal appointed Shaw to fill the unexpired term of Doug Everett who retired as of December 31, 2018. Shaw is a native of Lanier County, Georgia in Commission District 1. Commissioner Shaw formerly represented Georgia House District 176 (Atkinson, Lanier, Lowndes and Ware counties) for four terms following his election in 2010 to the Georgia House of Representatives. In the House, he chaired the Legislative Rural Caucus and the House Appropriations Transportation Subcommittee.

2019 GEORGIA GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENS

The 155th session of the Georgia General Assembly convened on Monday January 14, 2019 with a new Governor, new Lieutenant Governor and 40 freshmen in the House and Senate. The session, as prescribed by the State Constitution, lasts 40 days. This year's session is expected to last through March and probably into April. Among the top issues will be the state's Fiscal Year 2019 Amended Budget, the Fiscal Year 2020 Budget, along with rural broadband, rural health care and education.

Guiding the House will be Speaker David Ralston and Speaker Pro Tem Jan Jones while Lt. Governor Geoff Duncan presides over the Senate along with President Pro Tem Senator Butch Miller of Gainesville.

In his first State of the State Address to a Joint Session of the Legislature, Governor Brian Kemp proposed a $3,000 salary increase for teachers and a two percent merit increase for state employees in the state's Fiscal Year 2020 Budget.

the hearings. Our small staff of utility analysts and engineers as well as support will be incredibly busy."

The anticipated cases are as follows:

Georgia Power Company Integrated Resource Plan (IRP). The Company is expected to file its forecast for the Company's projected energy resources needed to serve its customers for the next three years. Once the Commission determines the fee as allowed by statute (O.C.G.A. §46-3A-2(c)) the Commission has 120 days to render a decision.

Georgia Power rate case. The Company is expected to file its request for a change in its base rates on July 1, 2019. State law requires the Commission to issue a decision within six months. Georgia Power base rates have been frozen since 2014.

COMMISSION SENDS OLDER VEHICLES TO SURPLUS

In Fiscal Year 2018, the Facilities Protection Unit purchased and received 12 new vehicles for the Pipeline Safety Inspectors. These vehicles replaced twelve existing vehicles that were sent to surplus. The surplus vehicles included six 2011 Chevrolet Tahoe's, two 2010 Ford Crown Victoria's and four 2008 Chevrolet Impalas. All twelve vehicles were towed from the South Deck Parking to an auction yard.

The new fleet is doing great and providing our staff with reliable transportation so they can travel throughout the state to perform their duties.

FAREWELL TO COMMISSIONER EVERETT

Chairman McDonald regales the group with his remembrances as Commissioner Everett and wife Janice look on

Friends and Commissioners gathered to wish farewell to retiring Commissioner Doug Everett before his last Administrative Session on December 18, 2018. Everett retired from the Commission on December 31, 2018 after serving 16 years on the Commission. He and his wife Janice will live in Albany. Everett has been in public service for more than 40 years, serving on the Albany City Commission and three terms in the Georgia House of Representatives before being elected to the Commission in 2002. He won re-election in 2008 and 2014 by more than 60 percent of the vote.

He was a past President of the Southeastern Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners. We wish Commissioner Everett and Janice all the best in retirement!

The gathering bids a fond farewell to Commissioner Everett and Janice
