PSC Following Governor's Directive on Teleworking

Atlanta, March 13, 2020 – The Georgia Public Service Commission is following Gov. Brian Kemp's directive, issued Thursday, that all state employees who have the ability to telework should work from home in a continuing effort to hamper the spread of COVID-19.

One of the most effective ways to prevent the spread of this virus is social distancing. To achieve this goal, Commissioners have encouraged all individuals interested in matters relating to the PSC to use the Commission's web-based resources to avoid interpersonal contact at Commission offices. Limited staff will remain on hand.

An Administrative Session of the PSC remains scheduled for 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 18. All PSC meetings are open to the public, per Georgia's open meetings act. However, Commissioners have strongly encouraged all parties to participate online by going to the Commission website, <https://psc.ga.gov/> and clicking on the Live Broadcast link in the upper right corner of the home page. Or by following this link: <https://livestream.com/psc>. Livestreams are active approximately five minutes prior to the start time.

Commission Chairman Chuck Eaton has also announced he will only accept scheduled appointments in his office and has encouraged other Commissioners and commission staff to adopt this visitation policy.
