MEDIA ADVISORY

PSC April 21 Administrative Session to Be Held Online Only

Atlanta, April 17, 2020 – The Georgia Public Service Commission is continuing to follow Gov. Brian Kemp’s directive that all state employees who have the ability to telework should work from home in a continuing effort to hamper the spread of COVID-19. To continue in this vein, Tuesday’s PSC Administrative Session will be held online only. Commissioners, staff and interested parties can participate from their homes.

Because the hearing room will be empty, the typical LiveStream link on the PSC website will not be operable. Instead, viewers can watch the video meeting on YouTube by following this link: <https://www.youtube.com/c/georgiapublicservicecommission>

The link is also posted at the top of the PSC website.

Members of the public who want to address the Commission can comment via email. A link for email comment is also at the top of the PSC homepage and can be accessed by this link: <https://psc.ga.gov/public-comments/>

All PSC meetings are open to the public, per Georgia’s Open Meetings Act. The Commissioners are confident this online meeting method will help keep Georgians safe and will preserve the meaning and spirit of the Open Meetings Act. Committee Meetings will continue in this fashion until further notice.

As usual, the meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m.
