Georgia Public Service Commission Elects Tricia Pridemore as New Chairman

July 22, 2020 – (ATLANTA) The Public Service Commission, on Tuesday, unanimously elected Commissioner Tricia Pridemore as the Chairman of the Commission.

“I am honored that my fellow Commissioners have elected me to serve as chair,” Chairman Pridemore said. “I look forward to working with them to continue the mission of the Public Service Commission – ensuring that every Georgian has access to affordable and reliable utility services.”

Chairman Pridemore was elected to a six-year term in November 2018. For a full biography, please follow this link: <https://psc.ga.gov/about-the-psc/commissioners/tricia-pridemore/>

The Georgia Public Service Commission is a five-member constitutional agency that exercises its authority and influence to ensure that consumers receive safe, reliable, and reasonably-priced telecommunications, electric and natural gas service from financially viable and technically competent companies.
